ITEM 6. Old Business Maren
c. Charlotte Carver Gallery Tyson/Maren

Maren shared an update on a new public art program involving the Carver Gallery. The planning department has approved budget for a program that will utilize the Carver gallery for a local artist showcase that will be juried with the winning piece accessioned into the city's public art collection. Committee member Schultz shared an overview of a branding vision, timeline, and details for programming in the gallery beginning in 2026. Maren and committee member Schultz will work closely with the city's communication team to build a gallery website and a plan for communicating the call to art and new program to the public.

d. Arts and Cultural Plan Update

Maren gave an update on the cultural plan, highlighting the final month of the engagement survey and some of the pushes being made to increase participation in that survey. Keen will be coming back to Sioux Falls in February to present at a city council informational, hold a visioning session with the Arts Commission, and tour some venues and arts amenities. Next phase will be compiling data and determining recommendations to be outlined in the plan.
