Report of Director of Parks and Recreation

Mike Patten provided the Director's report in Brett Kollar's absence. Patten stated all public pools are now open. Patten noted that the ribbon cutting for McKennan Park wading pool was a success. Patten gave a shout out to all the Parks and Recreation partners, starting with the Levitt and thanking them for what they bring to the community. He also noted the popularity of the Farmers Market at Falls Park. Patten mentioned how Great Bear is more than just a winter activity. They are now offering Chill at the Hill on Wednesday evenings. Patten stated that FAST has made an expansion to the north at Great Bear and it has been very popular. Patten noted that the Mary Jo Wegener Arboretum is very busy between weddings and other events. Mary Jo Wegener also offers different camps and classes throughout the summer. Patten gave a shout out to Cathy Buchheim for the work she puts forth for special events. Patten noted that they are working on educating the trail users on sharing the trail and being mindful of speed. Patten noted that they will be conducting another utilization study on the recreation trail. Finally, Conlin noted that he would like to see more enforcement on the trails from a speed standpoint. Conlin stated that he wants the trail to be safe and wants conversations to be had about speed that would be helpful for everyone. Conlin also stated that the trails at Great Bear are awesome and FAST did an excellent job on the trails. Cauwels inquired about the pool usage and pools being at capacity.
